

confluence is hiring a

Field Trip Coordinator

Deadline: November 18

Confluence is a community-supported nonprofit with the mission to connect people to the history, living cultures and ecology of the Columbia River system through Indigenous voices. We work through six public art landscapes, educational programs and community gatherings in collaboration with northwest Tribes, communities and the celebrated artist Maya Lin.

Confluence seeks an energetic and collaborative School Field Trip Coordinator to work with our small and dedicated staff to help deliver and expand educational programming. This candidate must have the experience, knowledge and cultural understanding needed to work closely with Tribes of the Columbia River region.

This position is located at the Confluence office at 1109 East 5th on the beautiful Fort Vancouver National Historic Site in Vancouver, Washington but remote working is expected and office hours are flexible.

This is a temporary, grant-dependent position at $25 per hour that allows for 60 hours of planning and implementation time for each of 5 field trips, 300 hours total. Travel to partner schools and field trip sites is required.

Confluence is an equal opportunity employer and we strongly encourage applicants of all backgrounds to apply.

For more information about us, please visit www.ConfluenceProject.org. To apply, please send a cover letter and resume to info@confluenceproject.org with the words "School Field Trip Coordinator" in the subject line. We will begin reviewing applications as we receive them. The position will remain open until filled. DEADLINE EXTENDED TO NOVEMBER 18, 2022
